HOLY HARMONY AND THE SAINTS

If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. -St. John 14:15-17

Receive ye the Holy Ghost. -St. John 20:22

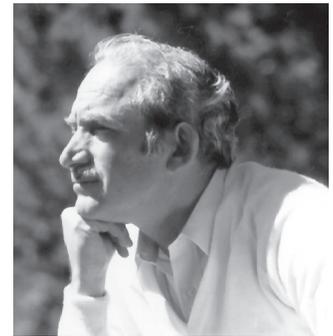

Jesus' Mantle has three Messianic manifestations: (1) the Comforter; (2) the Spirit of Truth, and (3) the Holy Ghost. These three work as three projections from the same Root. Each of the three projections that proceed from the Jesus Root has its own branches. All branches pertain to different levels of saintly mediation.

There are saints who work with the Comforter. There are saints who work with the Spirit of Truth. And there are saints who work with the Holy Ghost.

The Comforter Saints give comfort through the many different forms and degrees of healing of the physical body, the emotions, the mind, and the soul. Personal ills, maladies, afflictions; disharmony in marital and family relationships; national hates and jealousies; and all other imbalances in holy law come under the healing ministrations of the saints working in and through the Light of the Comforter.

The Comforter Saints heal through their anointing elixirs; they also guide persons to places, persons, teachings, and teachers where healings may occur. These healings may be physical healings, spiritual healings – or both. These mighty saints also work through all dedicated healers who are devoted to the virtues of compassion, mercy, humaneness, and benevolence. The greater the selflessness, humility, and love of the healer, the more efficacious are the healings that occur through the blessing-streams of the Comforter Saints.

Healing miracles manifest wherever there are environments of reverent worship and harmonious fellowship. Protégés of the Comforter Saints feel deep and perpetual empathy for the healing needs of their fellow man.

The healing of sin-caused suffering often results in a repentant person seeking the Truth. This places the seeker under the blessing-streams of the saints and angels working as emissaries of the Spirit of Truth. In this, the multi-faceted resplendence of Truth begins to reveal its majesty and glory – and one is initiated in the hallowed precincts of Truth. These initiations occur in the day's action and in the dreams of the night.

The great virtue of the discernment of the difference between right and wrong comes forth as one becomes receptive to the telepathic induction that is part of the saints' work with earnest Truth-seekers. Under the tutelage of these mentors, the devotee-initiate becomes centered in the Spirit of Truth. The Lord Christ working through the Spirit-of-Truth Saints quickens the gifts that fortify one in his service to God as a Truth-bringer and Truth-revelator. The royal gift of prophecy is opened in one's being as he is initiated in the glory of God in time and the glory of God in timelessness.
